

RESOURCES FOR GIRLS

Why do you Wear a Skirt?

A colorful 8 page Bible Study that breaks down the “Whys” to help equip the next generation of Apostolic Ladies.

Color me Modest Coloring Book

A modest fashion coloring book for ladies of all ages. Coloring sheets inspired by scripture and quotes that highlight the beautiful creation that is nature. Age-appropriate coloring pages for toddlers, kindergarteners, and primary children under 7 years old.

Because I Belong to Jesus

The seven short lessons in this book are crafted to help parents and guardians build on that framework, helping them guide conversations about holiness with their children. These lessons will help children become grounded in Apostolic doctrine from a young age and help them understand that holiness begins in the heart.

LORI WAGNER BOOKS FOR GIRLS

Covered by Love: The Uncut Mystery

Covered by Love presents Biblical principles in a clear, accessible, and engaging way. It uses easy-to-understand language and fun, informative graphics to help people of all ages understand why girls let their hair grow to its natural length.

Unmasked

"Unmasked" dives into the historical record, looks at biblical accounts, contemporary non-religious sources and shares personal stories as well. With spiritual insight and an incredible amount of research, this book presents a clear path in an understandable and appealing format for ladies, both young and old.

The Pure Life: The Heart of the Matter

Purity is at the core of each of the books in The Pure Path Series. They have to do with outward expressions of our inner relationship with God. The things we do, both private and in public, like dressing and behaving modestly, are ways that we present ourselves in public that honor God.

The Girl in the Dress

The Girl in the Dress helps us to realize why it is important to take a stand in today's world on modesty and purity. The authors take an excellent approach concerning the way the Bible teaches us to walk, talk, and dress.
